add information to your therapy claims and your medical record if your therapy services reach these amounts in 2023:

$2,119 for physical therapy (PT) and speech-language pathology (SLP) services combined

$2,119 for occupational therapy (OT) services

Once your therapy services reach these amounts, your therapist will need to add a special code to your therapy claim. By adding this code, your therapist confirms that:

Your therapy services are reasonable and necessary

Your medical record includes information to explain why the services are medically necessary

A Medicare contractor may also review your medical records to be sure your therapy services were medically necessary. This review may happen if your therapy services reach these amounts in 2023:

$3,000 for PT and SLP services combined

$3,000 for OT services

Your therapist or therapy provider must give you a written notice before providing services that aren't medically necessary. This includes therapy services that are generally covered but aren't medically reasonable and necessary for you at the time. This notice is called an "Advance Beneficiary Notice of Non coverage" (ABN). The ABN lets you choose whether or not you want the therapy services. If you choose to get the medically unnecessary services, you agree to pay for them.
