I. BACKGROUND

The Puerto Rico Emergency Management Bureau (PREMB) was created by Act 20 of April 10, 2017. It was formerly known as the State Agency for Emergency Management and Disaster Management of Puerto Rico, created by Law 211 of August 2, 1999. PREMB has the duty and obligation to protect people in emergency or disaster situations and, to this end, provide the fastest and most effective assistance necessary for protection before, during and after them, ensuring the protection of life and property. It also manages the efficient recovery and stabilization of services and resources needed by citizens, industries, businesses, and government entities.

As part of the program activities, the Bureau wishes to request competitive proposals from qualified and certified companies or individuals as instructors, offering Emergency Management Institute (EMI) courses for specific positions in Emergency Management Institute (EMI) Emergency Management Institute (EMI) for NIMS ICS All-Hazards Position Specific Training.

II. GENERAL OBJECTIVES

Provide the advanced level training necessary for personnel responsible for managing incidents of greater complexity than those normally encountered during routine operations. This training should be aimed at enabling the participant to address emergencies of all risks in a Command and Unit Leader positions selected within an Incident Management Team (IMT) environment.

III. SERVICE SPECIFICATIONS

Training should focus on empowering the student to assume specific responsibilities of the position (as applicable), leading assigned personnel, communicating effectively, and ensuring completion of assigned tasks to meet the objectives identified for the position.

The issuance of this RFP and receipt of proposals does not bind PREMB to award a contract. PREMB reserves the right to postpone the date of receipt or ultimately cancel all or part of this Request for Proposal without notice. Additional technical or cost action information may be requested for clarification purposes. The received information will not have the effect of changing the submitted original proposal, but it may lead to further negotiations between the potential proponents. Interviews and/or meetings are optional and may or may not be conducted at PREMB's discretion.

I. CHANGES TO PROPOSALS

The proposer may modify or withdraw his proposal before the established closing date and time by submitting a clear, detailed written notice. When the closing date and time arrives, all proposals are unalterable. The proposer will not change the proposal in any way, unless requested by the PREMB for clarification purposes.

PREMB reserves the right, where necessary, to modify the objectives, scope, and specifications of the RFP prior to the final evaluation of proposals. PREMB shall promptly notify all potential proponents who have requested or received copies of the specifications of such amendment. If the objectives, scope, and specifications are modified, any proposer from whom a proposal has been received prior to giving such notice of amendment shall have the right to withdraw the submitted proposal and resubmit it.

II. PRICE STABILITY

The prices set forth in the proposal will remain unchanged during the term of the Contract.

III. SUBCONTRACTING

PREMB may consent for the outsourcing of the services or products that are the subject of this request for proposal and that are likely to be subcontracted. For outsourcing to be considered, the proposer shall specify and detail in its proposal each and any of the services whose outsourcing is proposed.

IV. DELAY IN NEGOTIATION

If it is not possible to negotiate a written contract within thirty (30) days of the award notice, PREMB, in its sole discretion and at any time, may determine to terminate negotiations with the successful bidder and negotiate a contract with the next qualified proponent or may elect to terminate the request for proposal process without signing a contract with any of the proponents.

V. NOTIFICATION

PREMB reserves the right to reject any proposal because of any of the selection criteria set forth in the RFP, for near-expiring federal funds, for fiscal crisis, for any state or federal law or regulation affecting the procurement procedure, and for any other reason beyond PREMB's scope.

I. REJECTION OF OFFERS

PREMB reserves the right to reject any proposal that does not meet the specifications described in the RFP.

The issuance of this call and receipt of proposals does not bind PREMB to award a contract. PREMB reserves the right to postpone the date of receipt, or ultimately cancel all or part of this call.

Confidentiality: The contents of this RFP is considered confidential information. The person or company receiving it shall not disclose to anyone any information related to this request, or any information obtained in subsequent communications related to the request, except for its employees directly connected with the response to it.,. No information contained in this RFP shall be duplicated, used, or disclosed without the prior written consent of PREMB.

The information in this RFP may only be distributed with written permission from PREMB. In addition, no press releases, public announcements, or any other reference to this request may be made without the prior written consent of PREMB, whose consent may be withheld for any reason solely at PREMB's discretion.

ACCEPTANCE FORM

This form must be completed and signed by a person duly authorized by the proposer and delivered by hand along with the original proposal in PREMBs.

The attached proposal is submitted in response to PREMB Request for Proposals No. NMEAD-RFP-2024-001. I accept that I agree to all terms and conditions contained therein, and I agree that any inconsistency in our proposal shall be deemed to have not been written and as if it did not exist. I certify that we have read and reviewed the RFP, including all sections thereof, and that we have conducted prudent and reasonable research to prepare the proposal.
