Instructions Pursuant to Act No. 55-2020, known as the "Civil Code of Puerto Rico", corporations, companies, partnerships, special partnerships, foundations, and other associations of persons of particular interest, whether civil, mercantile or industrial, must be registered in the Registry of Legal Entities administered by the Department of State. Domestic and foreign entities doing business in Puerto Rico must be registered in the Registry of Legal Entities. The Registry of Legal Entities shall not be construed as constitutive for those entities whose creation is regulated by special laws, such as corporations, limited liability companies, and among others. The Registry of Legal Entities was created by the Department of State on June 2, 2022, in compliance with the Civil Code of Puerto Rico. Entities created on or after June 2, 2022, are required to register.
